

Police Justice Building was located next to A. Boszhardt's shoe store on South Main St. (now site of the Wis. Gas & Electric Co.). At the time this picture was taken, Herman A. Porter was Justice of the Peace. Soon after coming to Ft. Atkinson in 1856, Porter was elected Constable. Until his death in Sept. 1906, he served as both Justice of the Peace & Police Justice.